

negro shoveling dirt on a platform, and another sweeping the same dirt back into the same trench. We used to have the use of Marshall street from twentieth and twenty-first, an easy grade, now blocked by this company for several years, without their giving us anything in return. Why don't their capitalists come here and tell us of their plans. Mr. Pollock says they have told him, but they haven't told the committee that they are getting together. The work has not been resumed, and in my judgment it never will be resumed. If they have started in good faith we are not going to turn them down, but they have not, and their franchise is void."

Mr. Pollock spoke again at some length in support of giving the franchise holders another chance, saying that if the deal now pending was not carried out by October 28, he would favor no further extension, and any action now would be construed as menacing, especially when the franchise was admittedly "hanging by a thread."

On the vote on Colonel Grundy's motion to appoint a committee of inquiry, there were the following votes: Grundy, Forrester, Roberts, and Adams. Nee—Davis, Gilman, Gunst, Powers, Pollock and Whitte. The motion to table was then adopted by the same vote.

TAMMANY KETTLE VS. WOODRUFF POT

Both Look Mighty Black to Hearst, So He Tells New York Voters.

NEW YORK, October 18.—W. R. Hearst, independent nominee for Mayor of New York, and Otto T. Bannard, the Republican nominee, both of whom are heading the fusion ticket, dashed through Harlem to-night and delivered a series of rapid-fire speeches in support of their candidacy. Hearst spoke four times at four different places, and Bannard spoke three. Both candidates sped from one meeting place to another in an automobile.

As has been his wont, Bannard confined himself to business issues and was brief. Hearst spoke at length and continued his denunciation of William J. Gaynor, the Democratic nominee, although he found time to refer to Bannard as a machine candidate.

"I have gotten into this fight to defeat both Gaynor and his Tammany machine," Bannard said. "I do not want Mr. Bannard to forget, in his heat and excitement of the campaign, that he is just as much of a machine candidate as Judge Gaynor is. He may not be the candidate of the same machine, but he is the candidate of the same kind of a machine, and I, for one, cannot see the difference in blackness between the Tammany kettle and the Woodruff pot."

"Mr. Bannard was not nominated at the fusion conference. The fusion conference was broken up. He was not even nominated at the Republican convention. That has not yet been held. He was appointed and anointed the candidate of the Noble Order of Woodruffs and created a knight of the checked waistcoat at Jack's in the early hours of a September morning."

In the rest of his speech Hearst defended himself against the thrust of Judge Gaynor that he was endorsed by Tammany when he ran for Governor against Hughes.

"Gover Cleveland," he said, "was a consistent foe of Tammany Hall, yet he ran for Governor of the State on a Democratic ticket. I ran for Governor of New York on a fusion ticket of Tammany Hall as I had in the year before."

BRIDGE ON FIRE

Department Extinguishes Blaze on First Street Bridge.

Fire this morning shortly before 2 o'clock burned a hole about three feet in diameter through the flooring of the first street bridge, connecting Lakeside, with Barton Heights. The fire, which started in a box on the bridge, was extinguished by the fire department, and the damage was estimated at $100. The bridge is a wooden trestle, and the fire was caused by a lantern which had been left on the bridge. The fire department officials this morning began to start the bridge, and the damage is regarded as slight.

Building Permits.
Building and repair permits were issued yesterday as follows:
J. D. Coats, to erect a two-story brick dwelling on the north side of Hanover Street between Cedar and Robinson Streets, to cost $13,000.
John A. Bolling, to repair a two-story frame dwelling on the north side of Cedar Street, to cost $1,000.
Chained Two Tickets.
B. F. Kerns was fined $10 in the Police Court yesterday for disorder on a street car. Kerns claimed he had given a conductor three tickets and demanded a refund of two of them. Witnesses who saw the transaction stated Kerns was mistaken. The prisoner denied drunkenness, but this did not save him.

To Follow Old Plan.
The application of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul that a number of wood tickets be donated to it for distribution among the needy was refused by the Council Committee on Relief of the Poor last night. It was considered wisest that the wood be disposed of through the regular municipal channels.

SSS CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The violent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely removed from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of their strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smoldering in the system, have brought disappointment to thousands. The disease always returns after such treatment. S.S.S. cures Contagious Blood Poison, and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison, leaving the circulation pure, rich and healthy, nor does S.S.S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S.S.S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and bark, which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time speedily and safely to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your blood. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all.

discussions, and it was only with difficulty that the local committee could sandwich in the entertainment features for the visitors. An excursion on James River has been planned for Thursday morning, returning early in the afternoon, provision being made for holding a number of important committee meetings on the boat. A smoker will be given by the people of Richmond to the visitors following the regular session to-morrow night in the Jefferson Auditorium, and provision has been made through special reception committees for entertainment features for the women accompanying members of the health department.

Among the interesting men in the lobby of the Jefferson last night was Dr. P. M. Hall, of Minneapolis, chairman of the board of health of that city. He is the designer of the Decarie incinerator, the type now being installed in the incinerator plant in Minneapolis has added machinery whereby the fire burning garbage is carried off by a revolving arm, and the surrounding municipal buildings are illuminated. Dr. Hall had not been in Richmond long before he got in town with Superintendent of Health, showing Henry Cohn and made an engagement to inspect the system of sanitary street cleaning and garbage destruction in vogue in the city.

ATTACKED IN COURTROOM

Mother Slaps Face of Alleged Slander of Her Children.

UTICA, N. Y., October 18.—The trial of Theodore Rizzo, the murder of the two Italian children in the eastern part of the city in September, was begun to-day before Justice Rogers. It required a little more than six hours to secure a jury. The submission of evidence by the prosecution will begin to-morrow. Rizzo was brought to the courtroom heavily guarded, but he was attacked in the courtroom by the mother of Theresa Prencipio, one of the murdered children. She accused the prisoner several times in the courtroom of having killed her children. She was taken out of the courtroom by the guard, and she was taken to a hospital. She is now recovering from her injuries.

CAME FROM CAROLINA

John Sheppard Gives His Residence and Address to Two Negroes.

For no other reason, he says, than that he gave his residence as North Carolina, which was not approved by two other negroes he met in the street. John Sheppard, a white man, was arrested near Laurel and Broad Streets last night on a charge of having killed a negro. He was taken to the police station, and he was taken to a hospital. He is now recovering from his injuries.

Prisoners Going to Atlanta.

Departing for Atlanta, Georgia, this morning were two negroes, T. J. Kimball, alias T. J. Lewis, and Edward Cooper, alias Ralph Sims, both of whom will be turned over to the authorities of the Federal prison. Kimball pleaded guilty to stealing money from the post-office, and Cooper pleaded guilty to a misrepresentation. The white man was sentenced to eighteen months and the negro to two years.

Wonderful Flight IS MADE BY RUSSIAN

Flies From Juvisy to Paris and Return in Wright Machine.

CIRCLES EIFFEL TOWER

At Times His Aeroplane Attains Great Height of 1,300 Feet.

PARIS, October 18.—Count De Lambert, the French aviator, just before dark to-night accomplished one of the most remarkable and daring feats yet credited to heavier-than-air machines. Starting from the aerodrome at Juvisy, in a Wright aeroplane, he flew to Paris, a distance of about thirteen miles. After manoeuvring over the city at an average height of 400 feet he ascended in gradually diminishing circles and passed several hundred feet above the Eiffel Tower. He then returned to Juvisy.

Count De Lambert was given a tremendous ovation on his return to the city. Orville Wright, who was with him, rushed forward and wrung the hands of the aviator as he alighted, pale but radiant. He was led to the pavilion, where his health was drunk and he was cheered justly and crying time and again, "Long live Count De Lambert!" "Long live Russia!" De Lambert being of Russian extraction. The count held up his hand and shouted, "Cry long live the United States!" to her that I owe this success. The aviator said that throughout his trip he had entire control of the machine. The only inconvenience he suffered was from the heat of the engines, and from difficulty in seeing towards the end, in the gathering gloom.

The official time of the flight was forty-nine minutes thirty-nine seconds. The distance was roughly estimated at fifty kilometers (thirty-one miles), and the height varied from 300 to 1,300 feet.

Prove Apt Scholars.

COLLEGE PARK, MD., October 18.—In six training flights at the government aviation school, the aviators of Wilbur Wright, the two army officers, Lieutenants Lahm and Humphreys, demonstrated their ability to handle the government's aeroplane, purchased from the Wright brothers during the past summer by the Signal Corps. Each officer accompanied Mr. Wright on three flights, and at various times handled the machine unaided by the instructor. With Lieutenant Lahm in the pilot's seat, Mr. Wright during the day made the longest flight that has been attempted at the Signal Corps aerodrome, being in the air eighteen minutes and thirty-seven seconds.

While flying about the aerodrome Mr. Wright, with Lieutenant Lahm as observer, made a swift and powerful turn, and the aeroplane came abreast of a swiftly moving express train. So close was the machine of the air to its rival on the earth that it appeared to fly right above it. The disturbance of the air created by the speed of the train seemed to affect the aeroplane, which swept down dangerously close to the earth. As the wind caught it and added it onward, it seemed to gain upon the train.

Contests at Blackpool.

BLACKPOOL, ENGLAND, October 18.—At the close of to-day's flights in the aviation meet here, Farman, the French aviator, led the English aviators, having covered seven and a half miles in twenty-three minutes. Roughly, another Frenchman, had won his credit the longest flight, twenty-two and a half miles in thirty-two minutes. The contests are open until the end of the week.

Bleed Wins Prize.

DONCASTER, ENGLAND, October 18.—In the aviation contests here to-day, Le Bon, driving a Blériot, won the Bradford cup and a prize of £200 for the fastest time in ten circuits of the course.

Canal Will Be Fortified by Time of Its Completion

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 18.—

The important work of constructing fortifications for the entrances to the Panama Canal will be given careful consideration by a joint army and navy board during the coming winter. This board, the personnel of which has been partly completed, will visit the isthmus and go over the entire ground.

Colonel Goethals, the chairman and the chief engineer of the Canal Commission, has promised that the canal shall be ready to be opened by January 1, 1915, and the President and his Cabinet feel that the work of placing that waterway in an impregnable position should be finished or at least well under way by the time the canal is ready for traffic.

The board will consist of Brigadier-General William L. Marshall, chief of engineers; Brigadier-General William Crozier, chief of ordnance; Brigadier-General Arthur Murray, chief of coast artillery; Brigadier-General W. W. Witherspoon, assistant chief of staff, and two naval officers yet to be selected.

The new board will have available considerable data on which to inaugurate work, for in 1905 the national coast defense board, of which President Taft was then at the head, made a thorough examination into the whole subject of fortifications, and recommended an expenditure of $1,657,632. Since that time conditions have changed, and it may be found desirable by the board to make other recommendations, involving differences found necessary as a result of development in national defense.

Supreme Court Will Review Findings in the McCue Case

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 18.—

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day announced its determination to review the findings of the lower courts in the case of McCue vs. the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. This case involves the questions to whether the ordinary life insurance life policy insures against death under sentence of the law.

McCue is one of the heirs of the late Mayor McCue, of Charlottesville, Va., who was hanged a few years ago on the charge of murdering his wife. The insurance company refused to make a payment on a policy amounting to $15,000. The United States Circuit Court for the Western District of Virginia decided in favor of the company, holding that death on the gallows was not one of the risks against which McCue was insured, but the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit reversed that finding, and held in favor of the McCue policy. The Supreme Court will go over the entire record and decide the case upon its merits.

INSURGENT LEADER EXPLOSION KILLS SEVEN EMPLOYEES

His Request Is Received by State Department at Washington.

WASHINGTON, October 18.—While the officials of the Department of State decline to discuss the situation, it is nevertheless well understood here that this government is in full sympathy with the Estrada movement against the Yagala government. These familiar with the government's records, and the Central American affairs, it is alleged, President Yagala has for years crippled the commerce of his country; with the result that the Yagala government is in a financial and practically stifled republican institutions in Nicaragua, and with Yagala's many evidences of light regard for the Washington conventions, could not but have been a source of concern to the United States.

An announcing that the insurgent leader, Estrada, had asked for recognition as provisional president, the State Department said in a statement, "It is understood that the usage of the United States government for many years has been to withhold communication with the revolutionary parties in Central America, unless they be in practical control of the machinery of government of state, administering its laws in orderly fashion, with the acquiescence of the people, and in a position to fulfill responsibly all obligations of treaty and international law toward foreign powers. When that condition exists de facto, recognition is usually accomplished by accrediting a diplomatic agent to the new government and recognizing its envoy."

Strained as the events call for the adoption of such a course, the attitude of the United States government is necessarily that of a neutral spectator, except when interests of American citizens are menaced, in which case the resident agents of the United States in that country, or in case of need, the naval commanders, may demand protection or redress from the local de facto power, whether the government of the country be the titular government of the State or by its revolutionary opponents. In the latter case such a demand does not imply recognition of the legality of the government, but it does demand that the government should be sufficiently clear that should be the attitude of the United States in the present posture of affairs, in accordance with the technicalities of international law and practice."
